SOUVENIR PROGRAMME

Saturday & Sunday 25 — 26 November 2023

As President of the Nelson A & P Association I would like to welcome everyone to the 129th Nelson A & P Show.

After a challenging, soggy Show last year, we are very fortunate to be able to run our full annual Show once again.

We have some great new events taking place this year including the Federated Farmers Sheep to Shawl Competition where two teams of five will be battling it out to see who can produce the best shawl right from the sheep being shorn to the garment's completion at the close of the Show on Saturday. I am also very pleased to see the Gumboot Friday Charity hosting a Gumboot Throw on the Sunday fundraising for counselling sessions for kids. This is such a worthy cause, and a fun event to take part in, so make sure you go along and test out your gumboot throwing skills for a gold coin donation.

There are some great events to check out on Saturday like the Shearing, Highland Dancing and CCNZ Cable Price Nel Marl Excavator Operator Competition, and the Terrier Racing and Discover Dogs Breed Display on Sunday. Happening all weekend will be the Wood Chopping competition, the TOTS Mounted Equestrian Games, the animal competitions (including the normal Equestrian Section) and all the usual indoor competitions – Cookery, Horticulture, Photography, Handcraft, the Children's Competitions and the Wine & Beer Competitions.

Copies of our second book Beyond the Gates are on sale from the Show Office in Birch Hall along with our first book, From the Country to the Town.

As normally happens, organisation for this year had been well underway since last year's Show so the A&P Staff, Committee and Volunteers have put a great deal of work into this year's event. That being said, a huge thanks to the Volunteers, Stewards, Marshalls and Judges who spend countless hours in preparing Richmond Park for the Show and whose passion means that all the sections and competitions run smoothly. Their work ensures that Show traditions are continued for future generations.

Special thanks to the Nelson Pine Industries, Tasman District Council, Pub Charity, the Nelson and Waimea Weekly, Mainland Foundation, NZCT, Room 2 Rent, all of our Equestrian and competition Sponsors, More FM and The Breeze for supporting our Show, we greatly appreciate it.
